Disability Definition

Individuals who were registered under the Disabled Persons (Employment) Act 1944 on both 12 January 1995 and 2 December 1996 are treated as being disabled under the Disability Discrimination Act 1995 (DDA).

The DDA states "a person has a disability if he has a physical or mental impairment which has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on his ability to carry out normal day to day activities." The person must satisfy the four criteria in bold in the above statement to fall under and, therefore, be protected under the DDA. This definition is subject to amendments made by the DDA 2005.
